Teaching DANCE for Understanding

TEACHING DANCE IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

TdfU PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

Teaching Dance for Understanding (TdfU) offers educators a simple framework and activities that optimize student engagement, physical activity, positive thinking, group work, and creative thinking skills. This active learning workshop goes through the 6 Phases of the TdfU framework where educators learn how to implement engaging, relevant and physically-active plans and units. Participants will explore a variety of dance genres (Hip Hop, African, Bollywood, Tango etc.) and learn how to lead simple dances using an interACTIVE class style. Teachers will also gain an understanding of different ways to assess curriculum expectations for Physical Education and Arts (Dance) curricula.

TdfU WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES

By the end of this active workshop, educators will

- Learn about Teaching Dance for Understanding as a new pedagogical approach for dance education
- Experience lesson plans that showcase how TdfU can be used to support H&PE and Arts curricula
- Incorporate the inquiry-based model to facilitate student-centered learning
- Learn simple movements inspired from a variety of dance styles from around the globe
- Access assessment tools, playlists and dance move tutorial videos and notes

TdfU WORKSHOP INCLUDES

- One Full-Day PD Workshop Facilitation with Certified Master Trainer
 - Workshop Handouts, including Lesson Plans for each of the 6 Phases
 - Assessment Tools and Rubrics, with links to SHAPE National Standards
 - Choreography Notes for songs taught during the workshop
- *Optional - Online Access to Tutorials for Teachers and DPA Videos for Students
